Coinage of the Danish West Indies.

BY EDGAR H. ADAMS.

The coins of the Danish West Indian Islands of St. Thomas, St. Croix, and St. John will soon come within the scope of the collector of all issues connected with the United States, it now being almost certain that these islands will be purchased by this country.

The first coins struck for those insular possessions of Denmark of which we have any knowledge were those of the denominations of 1, 2, and 12 skilling, which were issued under the reign of Charles VI. of Denmark, who occupied the throne from 1730 to 1746. The 1 and 2 skilling pieces were in copper and the 12-skilling piece in silver.

12 Skilling of Christian VI., 1740, the first issue.

The obverse of the earliest 12-skilling piece of this series showed the design of an interlaced double monogram of "C" and "6," the inscription around the edge reading D. G. REX. DAN. NORV. VAN. G. The reverse bore the device of a three-masted ship, with the inscription XII. SKIL. DANSK. FOR. DE. DANSK. AMERIC. INSULER. 1740. C. W. The diameter was  $23\frac{1}{2}$  mm. and the metal silver.

The copper 2-skilling piece bore on the obverse the inscription of DE DANSK. AMERIC. EYLAND. KAAB. MYNT. The reverse, II SKILLING DANSK 1740. C. W. The diameter was 28mm.

The copper 1-skilling piece was similar in design to the foregoing, with the single difference of denomination, and had a diameter of 24mm.

The second series was issued under Frederick V., 1746-1766. Several varieties of 12 and 24 skilling pieces were issued for the islands. One of the varieties of the 12-skilling piece bore the bust of King Frederick, while the other showed his crowned monogram as the principal device. All of these coins were struck in silver, the 12-skilling coin having a diameter of  $23\frac{1}{2}$  mm. So far as known, no copper coins were struck during this reign.

The 24-skilling piece of Frederick V., dated 1765, showed on the obverse his double monogram, with the inscription D. G. DAN. NOR. VAN. GOT. REX. The reverse showed the ship design, with the inscription XXIII. SKILL. DANSKE. AMERICANSK. M. 1765. The diameter was 27½mm. and the metal silver.

12 Skilling of Christian VIII., 1767.

Under Christian VII., 1766-1808, pieces were issued of the denominations of 6, 12, and 24 skilling. There were several varieties of the latter denomination. The 24-skilling piece of 1766 had a design and inscription similar to that of the preceding reign, but the monogram was singular in form, bearing a large capital "C" inclosing the Roman numerals "VII." The diameter was 27½mm. The metal silver. The 6-skilling piece of Christian VII., dated 1767, also showed a variation in the monogram, it being in the form of a large capital "C" embracing an Arabic figure "7." The diameter was 18mm.; metal, silver.

Coins of a new denomination appeared during the reign of Frederick VI., 1808-1839. The denominations were 2, 10, and 20 skilling, the first-named piece being struck in copper, the others in silver.

The obverses of the three coins showed as the principal device the Danish coat of arms surmounted by a crown. The reverse of the 20-skilling piece bore the inscription * XX * SKILLING DANSK AMERIKANSK MYNT. 1816; the 10 skilling, * X * SKILLING DANSK AMERIK: MYNT. 1816, and the 2 skilling, * II * SKILLING DANSK AMERIK: MYNT. 1816, the diameters being, respectively, 21mm., 17mm., and 14mm. These denominations and designs were struck for many years.

The denominations coined during the reign of Christian VIII. were the same as under the preceding reign, and of the same design.

20 Skilling of Frederick VII., 1848.

By far the most extensive coinage for the Danish West Indies was issued under Frederick VI., 1848-1863. There was a series of 2, 10, and 20-skilling pieces, similar to those of the preceding reign. In 1859 a new series was begun of 1 cent, copper, and 3, 5, 10, and 20 cents in silver.

20 Cents of Frederick VII., 1859.

1 Cent of Frederick VII., 1859. Copper.

The silver pieces were all similar in design and inscription, the chief difference being in the denomination. Under the bust of King Frederick were the initials "F. K.," for Friedrich Christoph Krohn, mintmaster at Copenhagen. Under the ship on the reverse are the initials "H. C.," for Harald Conradsen, the engraver of the Copenhagen mint. The 20-cent piece had a diameter of 26mm.; the 10, 21mm.; 5, 16½mm., and the 3, 13mm. The cent of this series showed the small initial "K" below "1 CENT" on the reverse. It had a diameter of 21mm.

10 Daler, or 50 Francs, of Christian IX. Gold.

20 Cents of Christian IX., 1878.

2 Cents, or 10 Bit, of Christian IX. Copper.

Under the reign of Christian IX., 1863-1906, the denominations struck were 1, 5, 10, and 20 cents, and in 1905 was issued a series of the denominations of 2½ bit, 5 bits, 10 bits, and 25 bits, all struck in nickel, which showed the crowned monogram on the obverse, and trident, &c., on the reverse.

In addition there were issued coins of the denomination of 10 cents, or 50 bit, and a 20-cent, or 1-franc, piece, both in silver.

There are two gold coins which have been issued for the islands. These are of the denominations of 20 and 50 francs, dated 1904 and 1905, both showing the bust of Christian IX.

Associated with this island series are some counterstamped pieces, struck during the reign of Frederick VII. One of these pieces is a United States silver dollar of 1842, showing on the obverse a counterstamp of an interlacing of "F" and "R," with a crown above and the Roman numerals "VII" below. There is also a copper penny of George III. of England and a copper cent of the United States, dated 1851, bearing the same stamp. In addition to these pieces there are many other coins of various countries bearing the same countermark.

For the Island of St. Thomas there have been issued a large number of interesting tradesmen's tokens, struck in nickel, copper, brass, and white metal. All of these are on a basis of the Mexican currency.

20 Cents, or 1 Franc, of Frederick VIII., 1906.

So far, under the reign of the present King, Frederick VIII., who ascended the Danish throne in 1906, there have been issued at least two coins for the Danish West Indies, these being respectively of the denominations of 20 cents, or 1 franc, and 40 cents, or 2 francs, both dated 1907, and struck in silver.

The New Dime.

The above illustration shows the new dime that has just made its appearance. It is after the design by Adolph Weinman of New York City, and in our opinion is one of the handsomest coins of the denomination that has ever been issued for circulation by the United States. There are a few points that may be criticised, the chief of which is that Mr. Weinman has placed his initials in such a conspicuous part of the coin. The appearance of the initials of the modeler of a coin in this country always seems to be the signal for a lot of adverse comment on the part of those who have apparently no knowledge of precedent in this respect. Placing the initials or name of the artist upon a coin or medal design is a custom so old and well established that it is hardly worth while to refer to it, and needs no defense. Less criticism on the part of the general public would have been invited if the initials of Mr. Weinman had been placed under the bust, which is usually regarded as a proper place for them. With the exception of the chief design slightly overlapping some of the letters of the inscription, we regard the new design in the most favorable way, and trust that the projected quarter and half dollar will be of the same high class. It is sincerely to be regretted that this coin could not have been struck in proof, which would have greatly enhanced its beauty.

PUBLICATION IN PREPARATION.

Store Cards of the United States Issued Prior to the Civil War.

---

A full description of this interesting series, embracing about 500 tokens. Includes all those cards issued during the Hard Times period and many others struck at the same time (1833-44) which Mr. Low did not list in his work on account of the absence of date.

The arrangement is by states and each token is given a separate number; where there are issues in differing metals each metal has a number.

We invite subscriptions to this work at once and the character of the publication depends on the number received. If we secure a sufficient number of subscriptions to warrant the expense we will use about 50 to 75 handsome half tone illustrations in the text, if not, the work will have only a few cuts of the rarest pieces.
